They made love under a witch's moon, strangers swept away by destiny's fires. From the moment he walked out of the forest and into her arms, Serena Loren knew they had met before, that this magnificent man had returned from the past to claim her again. Until she awoke to find herself alone, bereft-- and angry. Who was he? Where had he come from? Too soon she'd learn that Professor Justin O'Neill was a boarder in her own inn, The Golden Hawk, a psychologist researching witchcraft at its Salem source. How could they have known they were both spellbound, reliving passions generations old, sentenced to a tragic fate -- that could only be challenged and changed by love.
